ABSTRACT

The aims of this report are to explain (1) the activities done by the writer during the internship program at Cultural and Tourism Department of Karanganyar Regency; (2) the difficulties faced and exit strategies done by the writer during the activities.

The main activity of this program is creating the tourism website using English in order to promote the local tourism destinations of Karanganyar Regency toward the foreign public. Further, there are five steps that had been passed by the writer. They are observing the tourism destinations, writing the persuasive-descriptive texts, creating and designing the website, reporting the project to the department, and also promoting the website to the public. During the internship activities, the writer faced many problems. The most difficult problem was writing the persuasive-descriptive texts. In order to solve that problem, the writer did some strategies. They are (1) reading some references from books, leaflets, and brochures of tourism destinations; (2) searching some parallel texts from some official websites from the other countries; and (3) rechecking the promotion texts to some experts.
