ABSTRACT

UPIK TRI KURNIAWATI, A Description Study on The Students' Mastery of Vocabulary of the second year student of SLTPN I Sawit Boyolali in Academic Year 2002/2003. Thesis Teacher Training and Education Faculty of Sebelas Maret University.

This research is mainly intended to describe the vocabulary mastery of the second year students. Considering the aim of this research, the researcher uses a descriptive method as the method of this research.

The researcher conducted the research at SLTP Negeri I Sawit Boyolali. In this research, the researcher took the second year students as the population. The sample of this study was 30 students, which were taken by random sampling. The researcher used the mean score in analyzing the data, and then classifying it to know how far the students master vocabulary.

The result of the research showed that the students' mastery of vocabulary belonged to a very good category. It can be seen from the mean which was 8.33. it means that the students' mastery of vocabulary was good.

The conclusion was that the students had an adequate ability in mastering vocabulary. Although they could master vocabulary well, it is suggested that they should always improve their vocabulary as much as possible.
